

FRIDAY WALKERS PROGRAMME, SPRING 2022 v2 (1 April)

DATE	DETAILS	LEADER
15 April	Start at National Trust car park in Lacock &gt; Reybridge &gt; Wilts &amp; Berks canal &gt; Naish Hill and back through Bowden Park and Bewley Green – circa 5.6 miles. Assuming starting from Sports Centre at 0930, we should start at 10.00. Please let me know if you are coming directly to NT car park. Parking - Lift sharing with NT members for free parking advised. We have 3 permits, so have 2 spares and I'm sure others can help out. Lovely walk, last done pre-covid, I think. Home for lunch or picnic lunch depending on weather.	Peter Davey
22 April	from Longbridge Deverell that starts near the airstrip. Details to follow.	Sue Ivey
29 April	My 70th! I will lead a short walk from Market Lavington, followed by lunch in my back garden (weather willing). I will provide food and drinks. You might like to bring a chair as I don't have many garden chairs. Meet for a 10am departure from Market Lavington Community Hall. Please let me know in advance if you are coming to lunch!	Peter Wheatley
6 May	The walk near Biddestone that was cancelled previously. More details later.	Ann Darling
13 May	West Woods, hopefully to see the bluebells. About 7 miles. Bring lunch. More details later.	Jane Bull
20 May	Details to follow	Sue Tovey
27 May	A walk in the Cherhill monument area. Details to follow.	Val Elmes
3 June	from the top of Pear Tree hill near Great Cheverell. This will culminate in a Platinum Jubilee picnic lunch near the Imber track (some members may recall our Golden Wedding anniversary non bacon sandwich lunch a few years back). Details nearer the time.	Bernie and Roger
10 June	Adam's Grave, Milk Hill & The Wansdyke, 4 miles.	Sue and Martyn Melvin
17 June	Park at the far end of Bradford on Avon station car park in Zone 2. £2.70 for 4 hours. We will walk along the canal to Avonciffe viaduct. From there we follow the river to Freshford. We return via The Friary, Iford Manor and Westwood. We finish at the Tithe Barn when you can choose to explore the old town, the local craft shops or the tea shop. The walk is 5.5 miles with a sharp climb from Iford and will take around 3 hours.	Bernie and Roger
24 June	A circular walk of 6.5 miles from the Swan at Stoford up over the downs and back via the river. Bring lunch.	Diana Tighe