National service must be introduced

Civil defence will change our views on survival

Cats makes better pets than dogs

Everyone should plan their own funeral

Breakfast is the most important meal of the day

Technology is increasing peoples quality of life

Cameras on drones are effective in maintaining security in public spaces

Email has improved communication

Video games make us smarter

Technology is making people less productive

Schools should use computer games for classroom instruction

Technology is making us less sociable

Technology is helping people become smarter

Social media has improved people's relationships