

As a world-leader in arts and culture, the Dutch proudly lay claim to some of the most famous artists of all time, being the birthplace of Old Masters including Rembrandt and Van Gogh. Art isn't just reserved for the galleries, though. There's an artist's touch everywhere you look in the Netherlands; nature shows off her splendour in the unforgettable bulbfields of Keukenhof – this explosion of colour has to be seen to be believed! Overflowing with vibrancy, Amsterdam has it all from quirky museums, vibrant cafes and wonderful galleries.

£1099 per person*

6th-10th May 2027

5 Days 4 Nights

What's included

- Executive touring coach throughout
- Return short sea ferry crossings (Dover - Calais)
- 4 nights half board accommodation
- City tax
- Admission to Keukenhof
- Time at leisure in Leiden
- Walking tour of Amsterdam
- Admission to the Rijksmuseum
- Admission to Panorama Mesdag
- Admission to Mauritshuis Museum with audio guide
- Admission to St Bavo's Cathedral with audio guide

Extras

- Single supplement - £260 pp (twin/double for sole occupancy)

The exact order of excursions will be included in your itinerary, which you should expect to receive approximately 2-3 weeks prior to departure.

*Based on a minimum of 30 members travelling.
Should fewer travel the price will increase:
Minimum 25 - £1,159
Minimum 20 - £1,229

Mauritshuis Museum

Keukenhof

Known as the most beautiful spring garden in the world, Keukenhof's rolling landscaped parklands are an explosion of colour with 7 million beautiful spring flowers planted in intricate displays. An unimaginable delight for the senses, Keukenhof is made up of themed gardens, sculptures, unique works of art and an historic windmill.

Leiden

Birthplace of Rembrandt and home to The Netherlands' oldest university, Leiden is both vibrant and historic. The genteel old buildings lining its lovely canals alongside a wealth of museums make this one of the country's most prestigious cities.

Amsterdam

A city famed for its historic buildings, museums and lovely canals, visitors can stroll around its vintage boutiques, wonderful galleries and unique cafes. The Museumplein Square houses the main museums such as the Van Gogh Museum, the Rijksmuseum and the Stedelijk Museum, dedicated to modern & contemporary art. Anne Frank's House depicts the life of the young wartime diarist. Dating back to the 1600s, the Royal Palace Amsterdam features rooms and galleries adorned with the finest paintings and sculptures.

The Rijksmuseum

Amsterdam's completely renovated, world-famous museum contains a staggering collection of art including Rembrandt's Night Watch and works by Vermeer and Van Dyck. See these iconic masterpieces first-hand, alongside exquisite antique artefacts, drawings, prints and classic photography which tell the story of Dutch art and history.

Amsterdam

Panorama Mesdag

Witness this incredible cylindrical artwork by Hendrik Willem Mesdag, housed in a purpose-built museum in The Hague. This unusual creation captures an impressive panorama of the sea, sand dunes, and a small fishing village. At more than 14 metres high and 120 metres in circumference, this colossal masterwork is not to be missed!

Mauritshuis Museum with audio guide

Within this 17th century palace in The Hague lies a world-renowned gallery with over 800 pieces of art. On a guided tour, you'll see many famous works from the Old Masters, including the eminent Girl with a Pearl Earring by Vermeer. The astonishing collection has earned this building the appropriate nickname 'the jewellery box'.

St Bavo's Cathedral with audio guide

This towering Gothic cathedral in Ghent contains some remarkable artwork, the most influential of which is the 15th century painting The Adoration of the Mystic Lamb by the Van Eyck brothers. This visionary work of art depicting the heavenly apotheosis of Man's salvation is allegedly one of the most often stolen works of art in history.

Hotel Leonardo Papendrecht

An excellent location for touring the Netherlands, this modern 4-star hotel is in a quiet neighbourhood near the picturesque rural area of Drecht and De Biesbosch National Park. Guests can relax in the hotel's stylish open plan restaurant, bar and terrace areas. Guest rooms with sleek artwork and exclusive furniture are well appointed with flat-screen TV, free Wi-Fi, air conditioning and tea and coffee making facilities.

